FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Question: I tried to buy some products from a U.S. retailer, but they refused my international credit card. What should I do?

Answer: most clients use their credit cards for a secondary address when using Swift-post. However, you may wish to use our Personal Shopper Service, which allows you to organize and monitor your tasks. This service is simple and easy. Just use secure account management to place your order and submit your payment. We'll do the rest.

Question: What exact address will I be assigned in the U.S. through your service?

Answer: Swift-post will provide you with your requested service, whether it is Personal Shopper Services, Mail Forwarding Services, or Virtual Office Services. You will receive an approved, authentic U.S. address issued by the U.S. Postal Service.

The Personal Shopper Service can make your deals for you. For a low fee of $19.95 that is added to your shopping cart, you can simply add your items and adjust their quantities. For instance, if your order costs $225, you can change the quantity to 225 units at $1.00 and specify the products for which you are looking. In the comments section, provide details such as color, active links for the product, size, model number, etc. Then, just round up the dollar amounts to the nearest dollar to calculate your expense.

Please note that shipping fees are separately invoiced.

If your order exceeds $500, payment is required within three days through Money Wire.

Please contact us with any questions you may have.

Question: I can't remember my user name or password. What now?

Answer: We can help reset your password quickly and easily. Just contact a member of our support team for the reset.

Originally, our clientele consisted of U.S. citizens who were living overseas for a short time or permanently. They wished to receive the catalogs and products they had at home, in addition to bulk mail and first class mail. They also wanted to order products online that could be shipped to their new address.

Today, we have clients in over 225 countries that demand the same services. Swift-post provides our customers with postal mail forwarding, package forwarding, and ordering and logistics systems around the world. Switching service packages is easy and can be done with just one click. It's that simple!

Since most U.S. shops do not regularly ship products overseas, our clients were experiencing inconveniences that we now target. Swift-post combines reasonable prices, experience, and excellent service quality for foreign students, clients, and citizens and small businesses when they need to buy something available only in the U.S.

If you need the latest fashion or want to expand your business presence into the U.S., Swift-post.com can provide efficient , proven techniques to meet your needs.
